A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS

HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

“And it happened that while they were conversing and debating Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him... ‘But we were hoping that he would be the one to redeem Israel, and besides all this, it is now the third day since this took place. Some women from our group, however, have astonished us... and did not find his body, they came back and reported that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who announced that he was alive’... ‘Stay with us, for it is nearly evening and the day is far over.’ ...how he was made known to them in the breaking of bread.”

Did you ever decide to go out and take a walk? It is refreshing and it can renew us. Did you ever enjoy taking a walk with another person, talking about life, family, what is important to you. Pope Francis has a wonderful book entitled ‘Walking with Jesus.’ He is the companion to the reader, telling us what is important as we walk with Jesus.

The Emmaus account in Luke’s gospel is so special. I am the unnamed person accompanying Clofas, and Jesus decides to join our walk and conversation. He asks what concerns me. For them it was the death of the missing Jesus. For me it is my eyes shielded from recognizing him in others. I too plead ‘stay with us...’ He does, in His word, in the Eucharist, in my companions in faith. He never leaves. May I recognize Him in the breaking of the bread and others.

UNA FRESCA PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES SU PALABRA HOY por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

“Mientras conversaban y discutían, el mismo Jesús se acercó y siguió caminando con ellos. Pero algo impedía que sus ojos lo reconocieran... Nosotros esperábamos que fuera él quien librara a Israel. Pero a todo esto ya van tres días que sucedieron estas cosas. Es verdad que algunas mujeres que están con nosotros nos han desconcertado... y al no hallar el cuerpo de Jesús, volvieron diciendo que se les habían aparecido unos ángeles, asegurándoles que él está vivo... ‘Quédate con nosotros, porque ya es tarde y el día se acaba.’ ... partió el pan y pronunció la bendición. Entonces los discípulos lo reconocieron.”

Piense en las ocasiones en que ha decidido salir a caminar. Es algo refrescante y renovante. ¿Ha gozado de alguna caminata con otra persona, mientras hablan de la vida, la familia, lo que es importante para usted? El Papa Francisco ha escrito un maravilloso libro entitulado ‘Caminar con Jesús’. El es el acompañante del lector, indicándonos lo que es importante al caminar con Jesús.

El recuento de Emaús en el evangelio de San Lucas es tan especial. Yo soy la persona que no es nombrada, el acompañante de Clofas, y Jesús decide unírseos en nuestra caminata y conversación. El pregunta sobre lo que me preocupa. Para ellos era la muerte de Jesús. Para mí es la venda en mis ojos que me impide reconocerlo a El en otros. Yo también ruego ‘Quédate con nosotros...’ Así lo hace, en Su palabra, en la eucaristía, en mis compañeros de fe. Nunca nos deja. Ojalá pueda yo reconocerlo al partir el pan y en otros.

THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

First Reading: Acts 2:14, 22-33

After the Holy Spirit descends upon the apostles, Peter preaches with great enthusiasm to both Jews and Christians. He recalls for them in vivid terms the miracles and wonders that Jesus performed.

Second Reading: 1 Peter 1:17-21

Peter makes reference to the Passover, when the Jews escaped from Egypt because the blood of the paschal lamb was shed. Now they are being saved from sin by the blood of Christ, the Lamb of the New Testament.

Gospel: Luke 24:13-35

Jesus reveals Himself to two disciples on the way to Emmaus. After explaining to them the passages in Scripture which referred to Him, Christ “took bread, broke it, and distributed it to them.” Then they recognized Christ and their “hearts burned within them.”
