A FRESH PERSPECTIVE ON THE SUNDAY READINGS
HIS WORD TODAY by Rev. William J. Reilly

"Forgive your neighbor's injustices, then when you pray, your own sins will be forgiven. Could anyone nourish anger against another and expect healing from the Lord? Could anyone refuse mercy to another like himself can he seek pardon for his own sins?... Remember your last days, set enmity aside, remember death and decay, and cease from sin. Think of the commandments hate not your neighbor, remember the Most High's covenant and overlook faults."

When we consider the word power, we might think of electricity, strength, or brute force. The greatest power available is not material, physical or even emotional. The greatest power resides in every person, yet often goes unused. The scriptures today reflect that power and it is found in the word forgiveness. Every person has the power to forgive. In our world beset with hatred, war, and discrimination rarely do we resort to the use of this power. We are set on dominating, getting even, putting others in their place. We judge, presume intentions and motivation, yet fail to see the splinter in our own eye. The power to forgive is a gift for use, for my own well-being and for others. I recall a wise old priest who directed others to 'look the other way'.

Seek God...
call God's name.

UNA FRESCA PERSPECTIVA DE LAS LECTURAS DOMINICALES
SU PALABRA HOY por el Reverendo William J. Reilly

“¡Busquen al Señor mientras se deja encontrar, llámenlo mientras está cerca! Que el malvado abandone su camino y el hombre perverso, sus pensamientos; que vuelva al Señor, y El le tendrá compasión, nuestro Dios, que es generoso en perdonar. Porque los pensamientos de ustedes no son los míos, ni los caminos de ustedes son mis caminos –dice el Señor–.”

Las lecturas de la biblia durante la misa en estas últimas semanas han puesto gran énfasis en el perdón. Se nos invita a reflexionar en nuestra habilidad de perdonar a otros y a nosotros mismos. Se nos recuerda buscar perdón de Dios y de otros. A veces tendemos a olvidar uno de estas tres cosas. Es importante que busque el perdón de Dios. Nuestro acto de contrición o penitencia nos dirige a la Misericordia de Dios. Nuestro deseo de no guardar rencor ni buscar revancha, sino comprender a alguien más y decir ‘está bien’, es inspirador. Admito mis faltas y me doy cuenta de que no siempre estoy en lo correcto y debo decir ‘lo siento’. Finalmente, debo aprender a perdonarme a mí mismo y no quedarme rumiando mis errores, sino que debo levantarme y continuar como una persona perdonada y que perdona. Sí, el perdón es el poder que tengo en mi mano y en mi corazón.

2017 Bishop’s Annual Appeal

In Giving, We Receive

The vital work of our Church supported by the Bishop’s Annual Appeal is only as successful as the number of faithful parishioners who participate by making a gift. Your support helps bring hope to those who come to our Catholic Charities agencies. It supports seminarian education, our diocesan priests’ residence and our inner-city area schools. Every gift counts! Saint Teresa once wrote that “we feel what we are doing is a drop in the ocean, but that ocean would be less without that drop.” Our Bishop’s Annual Appeal is able to do that much more with whatever you are able to give. Please help make 2017 the year that our Bishop’s Annual Appeal does even more for people in profound need.

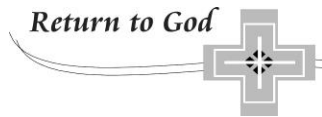

Come, Let Us Adore Him!

Join us for Eucharistic Adoration, the Chaplet of Divine Mercy & the Holy Rosary every first Sunday of the month at 3:00 PM.
